FROM OUR PASTOR

The following is taken from remarks offered by Fr. Vasken on January 22.

Jesus is always the answer. This morning I want to share something with you that I experienced this past week. It was nothing earth shattering but it was very uplifting to me. One day last week I dropped into a local Dunkin' Donuts to enjoy a morning cup of hot coffee. Now at that Dunkin' Donuts there were four boys, high school age, who I noticed were studying for what must have been an upcoming exam later that day. As I sipped my hot French vanilla, I was watching the TV monitor showing CNN's coverage of all that was happening in Washington D.C., in the days leading up to the Inauguration. The news reports were debating the pros and cons of the incoming administration versus the outgoing administration. Their words were certainly not positive from either side of the debate. They were verbally hitting each other.

Now throughout all this, I kept noticing those four teenage boys studying at a nearby table and from time to time their words reached my ears. They were studying for what sounded like a comparative religion class in which they needed to know all about this or that philosopher or religious leader from history. I heard half sentences about Buddha and about Confucius, but then I heard the quote I began with: "Jesus is always the answer. That's what I'm going to write somewhere in my essay because He makes me feel better about myself." That made my day.

"... because He makes me feel better about myself."

As many of you, I, too, watched the events in Washington unfold these last days and weeks. It was an historic week for our county when you think about the gift of a peaceful transfer of power for a country as large as ours. Where else in the world does that happen so smoothly? Listening to the news coverage in the background of all that took place in Washington, we heard passionate people on both ends of the spectrum and their passion was fascinating, but their words left a lot to be desired. I enjoy seeing people express their passion for what they feel is the right path to take or for who they feel is the right person to lead us. I see their passion and I think: "They are engaged. They care about something very important." But I observed two other things from what I read or what I watched on TV as well. I observed that we truly have some very articulate and eloquent speakers among our public servants. But I also observed that their words were used much too often to tear down instead of buildup.

Today's Gospel lesson speaks of a man who was brought to Jesus to cure his life-long condition of being deaf and mute. This man was born unable to hear and unable to speak. There was nothing that the medical world of his day could do for him so, in a last ditch effort, he sought out the compassionate heart of Christ and was cured. And according to the Gospel, Jesus touched the man and his ears were opened, his tongue was released and he spoke plainly for the first time in his life. The message of this miracle is about far more than simply a man receiving his hearing and speech. We have to ask the question:

- What did this man do with his new-found ability to communicate?
- How did he use his new gift of speech?

The Bible says very little about this, but it does show us that speech is valued by God. How we use our tongue is important to God and what we say or don't say is noticed by God. And that's a very important biblical lesson. I am fortunate, as a priest, as a pastor, to spend quality time with people at different points of their lives. I spend time with them when they and their families are celebrating and rejoicing. I spend time with them when they are at their most vulnerable and hurting. And because of this, I see the needs of many different people. From time to time I sit back and I think about what it is that I am seeing. This is what I often see. Each day it seems people go about their daily routines dropping off their kids at school, driving to the office or to a doctor's appointment, flying to a business meeting, shopping at the mall or even trying to stay on their diets, and they are coming to the realization that there is something missing. They are deciding that their work, their possessions, their entertainment in life, their sheer busyness is not enough. And everything from their facial expression to their attitudes towards others conveys their unhappiness.

It's the type of unhappiness that comes from a realization that all they ever wanted in life is not enough. It's a realization that all they ever worked for in life is turning out less satisfying than they had hoped. These people, all of us, need one another to build each other up and to help us realize that, yes, life is not always easy; life has its challenges, but we're all in this world together and that we can't be the children of God by ourselves. A child of God needs two things in life:

- Faith in God and the Kingdom of Heaven,
- And the desire to act out his or her faith in this world.

In other words, a Christian is a person who has faith in Christ AND who makes someone else's life better. We have to have the faith AND carry out the faith. Today's Bible lesson makes it clear that the gift of speech is to be used to build up and not tear down. And the gift of speech can be used very easily to make someone else's life better. I want to end with an illustration I came across once that I ask you to bring to mind the next time you meet someone who misuses their gift of speech. It's titled: "Do you know me?" and reads as follows:

... the gift of speech is to be used to build up and not tear down.

"I have no respect for others. I wound without killing. I break hearts and ruin lives. The more I am quoted, the more I am believed. My victims are helpless. They cannot protect themselves against me for I have no face and no name. To track me down is impossible. I am nobody's friend. Once I tarnish a reputation, it is never the same. I have toppled governments and wrecked marriages. I ruin careers and cause sleepless nights, heartaches and grief. I make innocent people cry into their pillow. I make headlines and I make heartaches. My name is 'Gossip.' I am used to 'Slander.' And I enjoy 'bearing false witness'."

Today's Gospel lesson is about recognizing that our ability to speak is a personal gift to us from God. And what we do with that gift will make all the difference to Him. Remember the words of that teenage boy in Dunkin' Donuts that changed my day so positively. "Jesus is always the answer because He makes me feel better about myself." Today's Gospel lesson is about "the gift" of speech. May it help us to think about how we can use "this gift."

EREVAN CHORAL SOCIETY CELEBRATING 50 YEARS

The Christmas Concert of the renowned Erevan Choral Society and Orchestra of our Church, held in the sanctuary on Sunday, December 11, 2016, at 7:00 p.m., was dedicated to the 25th anniversary of Armenia's independence and the 50th anniversary of the Erevan Choral Society. Established in 1966, by Father Oshagan Minassian and directed by composer Konstantin Petrossian since 2009, this group – unique in its kind in the Diaspora – carries out great work in the advocacy of Armenian music. Thanks to a long-standing creative connection to Armenia's composers and performers, many pieces by Armenian composers have been premiered and made famous overseas by the Erevan Choral Society.

The evening began with welcome remarks by our pastor, Father Vasken, who stated that the Church was honored by the presence of Cambridge Mayor E. Denise Simmons. The Mayor highly praised the activities of the Choral Society and Orchestra, and noted the importance of preserving the cultural heritage of Armenia. Following her remarks, Fr. Vasken asked the gathered crowd to partake in a special collection for the victims of the recent horrible fire in Cambridge that left 137 people homeless. "In this holy season of Christmas," Fr. Vasken stated, "let us honor our Lord by helping those now left homeless by tragedy." The group also received congratulatory letters from Yerevan Mayor Taron Margaryan, Republic of Armenia Minister of Culture Armen Amiryan, Republic of Armenia Minister of the Diaspora Hranush Hakobyan, and President of Armenia's Composers' Union Aram Satian.

As a special treat for the opening portion of the musical program, Harvard University's "The Callbacks" a cappella group, featuring Lena and Alex Afeyan of our parish, magnificently performed a series of Christmas Carols.

Erevan Choral Society and Orchestra's annual holiday program always holds a special palette. This year's concert was no different. The saturated program included New Year's and Christmas spirituals and works by both Western composers, such as Vivaldi and Handel, as well as Armenian composers, including Komitas, Edgar Hovhannisyan, Arno Babajanian, Levon Chaushyan, Martin Vartazaryan, and Melik Mavisakalyan. Along with these works, there were two premieres: Aram Satian's "Holy Fatherland" and "A Word to the Generations" by Rita Sargsyan – both warmly received by the audience. Soloists Vagharshak Ohanyan, bass-baritone, and Kate Norigian, soprano, performed a series of songs showcasing their high artistic caliber. Our Armenian School students' poem recitations were performed beautifully, as well.

The entire concert was quite uplifting, and the Erevan Choral Society presented a varied and complex program brilliantly. This was made possible thanks to the creative work of Artistic Director and Conductor Konstantin Petrossian, pianist Nune Hakobyan, and each member of the Choral Society who had worked on this program for several months.

Following the concert, there was a festive reception to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Choral Society in the Charles and Nevart Talanian Cultural Hall. In his speech, Master of Ceremonies Berj Chekijian paid tribute to the founder of the Erevan Choral Society, Father Oshagan Minassian, who dedicated his entire life to serving the arts. Father Vasken thanked all members of the Choral Society for their many years of work, and on behalf of the Church presented commemorative gifts to Nancy Moscofian and Alice Palanjian who have been active members of the choir since its founding. Konstantin Petrossian thanked all members, friends, and sponsors of the Choral Society and Orchestra, and invited new members to join the group. A slideshow of the choir's history, masterfully prepared by Vatche Der Torossian, closed the evening. Notably, artist Sossy Nercessian created a mural and logo commemorating the Choral Society's 50th anniversary.

In gratitude must be mentioned the great organizational work of Nancy Moscofian, librarian; Aida Diloyan, recording secretary; Sarkis Salakian, Choral Society Manager; and Sargis Karapetyan, Orchestra Manager. Among the audience members of the concert were clergy of the Armenian Church, diasporan representatives of Armenian Culture, representatives of political organizations, and members of the public.

As an added component to an already wonderful evening, an exhibit of paintings in oil and watercolor by talented artist Sona Manoukian was on display during the reception.

"The evening was a tribute to Fr. Oshagan," stated Fr. Vasken, "and to all those who have been a part of the Erevan Choral Society over the half century, as well as all who have contributed to make this beautiful tradition a reality."

ACYOA SENIORS NEWS

Now that Sports Weekend is over, life continues at a much-deserved slower pace. The latter part of 2016 and early 2017 were spent focusing on participation in national ACYOA programs; volunteering at the annual Trinity Christmas Bazaar (helping with set up, food preparations, kitchen crew, Silent Auction booth, Made in Armenia Direct booth, Santa Photos and general help throughout the event); and refocusing on parish-wide events, such as the annual Thanksgiving Luncheon and monthly Trivia Nights.

Leadership Conference – November 18-20, 2016

The annual ACYOA Seniors Leadership Conference, held from November 18 to 20 in Lakeside, CT, drew 60 young adults from more than 20 parishes across the Eastern Diocese. This year, 60 percent of the participants were first-time attendees of the annual Leadership Conference sponsored by the ACYOA Central Council. This year's conference theme was "The Legacy of Our Martyrs / Legacy of the ACYOA: Our Gift to Carry Forward." Participants examined different styles of leadership and how to identify and utilize their unique style in their own parishes. Attending from Holy Trinity were Danielle Malconian, Ronald Malconian, Jr., and Anna Margaryan.

ACYOA Seniors Chapter Workshop – January 20-22, 2017

Amalia Petrosyan and Naneh Petrosyan

From January 20-22, more than 40 young adults from 16 parishes across the Eastern Diocese gathered at St. Kevork Church in Houston, TX, for the annual ACYOA Seniors Chapter Workshop. Organized by the ACYOA Central Council, the weekend focused on finding ways to strengthen local ACYOA chapters. Participants discussed chapter administration, teamwork, goal setting, and event planning. They also completed a service project to benefit the elderly residents of the Armenian Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Emerson, NJ. Attending the Workshop representing the Holy Trinity ACYOA were Sandra Hovsepien, Amalia Petrosyan and Naneh Petrosyan. Also in attendance was ACYOA Central Council member and workshop organizer, Danielle Malconian.

Annual Thanksgiving Fellowship – November 23

Lenten Discussion Series

During the Lenten season, all young adults are invited to participate in weekly gatherings, alternating between St. James Church (March 2 and 16), and Holy Trinity Church (March 9 and 23). Sessions, beginning at 7:30 p.m., provide a casual and meaningful opportunity for interactive Lenten reflection and are led by Holy Trinity Youth Director, Yn. Arpi Kouzouian and St. James Youth Minister Maria Derderian.

DOME REPAIR AND SANCTUARY PAINTING

Church services have been held in the Charles and Nevart Talanian Cultural Hall.

Join us on Palm Sunday, April 9, as we joyfully return to our beautiful Sanctuary.

ACYOA JUNIORS UPDATE

Bake Sale

On October 16, continuing their commitment following taking part in the Jimmy Fund Walk on September 25, the ACYOA Juniors hosted a Bake Sale, raising $200 for the City of Smile Foundation, benefiting the Muratsan Chemotherapy Clinic at the Yerevan University Hospital.

Annual Thanksgiving Luncheon and Live Service Auction

On November 20, nearly 250 parishioners gathered to take part in the annual ACYOA Thanksgiving Luncheon and Live Service Auction, including 27 ACYOA Juniors and 9 ACYOA Seniors. The afternoon included a delicious Thanksgiving meal, prepared by David Minassian and David Dorian, along with the help of many ACYOA parents and ACYOA Seniors.

During the Luncheon, the ACYOA hosted the fifth annual Live Service Auction, with 26 ACYOA Juniors and 2 ACYOA Seniors pairing up to volunteer their services to the greater Holy Trinity Church community, auctioning off four hours of their time to help parishioners get their homes and families ready for the Christmas season. Services ranged from babysitting to yard work to computer tutorials. This year the auction raised over $1,600, and the ACYOA donated 15% of the proceeds to The Greater Boston Food Bank, $240.75 which provided 723 nutritious meals to our Boston neighbors in need.

Many thanks to the day's auctioneer, Greg Ekchian, and the ACYOA Juniors Leadership Team who coordinated the Auction, Anush Kirakosyan, Alina Kouzouian, and Diana Margaryan.

Seventh Annual Christmas Ball

On December 10, 55 youth from 6 area parishes gathered for the Seventh Annual Holy Trinity Christmas Ball. This event, open to all diocesan youth, has become an annual holiday tradition, providing one more opportunity for our youth to gather in fellowship. Annually, 25% of ticket sales from the Ball are donated to a charity. This year's donation was sent to the Fund for Armenian Relief to be used to benefit the families of fallen Artsakh soldiers. The $300 donation was used to purchase Christmas gifts for the children of our fallen heroes.

Many thanks to the Leadership Team who organized the event: Kevork Atinjian, Michael Manoukian, Diana Margaryan and Anahid Ohanyan.

Christmas Party

On December 18, the ACYOA Juniors gathered for their annual Christmas Party, which included lunch, Christmas games and a gift exchange.

Souper Bowl of Caring National Fundraiser

February 5, 2017 marked our chapter's 17th year of participation in the national fundraising effort, Souper Bowl of Caring, that takes place every Super Bowl Sunday. Since 2001, the ACYOA has raised and donated over $5,000 to Rosie's Place, a local shelter for women. Many thanks to all those who took part and raised $275 during this year's collection.

Harvard Square Outing

On February 11, over 30 youth from both the Holy Trinity and St. James ACYOA Junior chapters enjoyed an afternoon in Harvard Square.

Leadership Team Approach

The Holy Trinity ACYOA Juniors are a vibrant group, full of diverse personalities, skills and interests. This year the chapter's focus is on leadership development. Since September 2016, the Juniors have embarked on a new "Leadership Team" approach, working on identifying individual strengths, talents and interests, with a different leadership team undertaking the planning and execution of each event. The goal is to enable more members to experience leadership, discover what it takes to be an effective leader – and follower – and in the process, develop mutual respect, understanding and teamwork.

Ongoing Community Outreach Program – Cradles to Crayons

The ACYOA Juniors have an ongoing community outreach program, a collection drive for Cradles to Crayons, an organization that strives to provide children up to age 12 living in homeless and low-income situations with the essentials they need to feel safe, warm, ready to learn, and valued. Donations may be deposited in the purple bin located in the Sparks Street vestibule. For a list of donation guidelines, please visit www.cradlestocrayons.org.

What's Coming Up?

The coming months will include more leadership development opportunities; taking part in Global Youth Service Day with a clean-up project at Armenian Heritage Park on the Rose Kennedy Greenway during April Vacation, followed by a Lock-In; and more opportunities to serve the parish and community.

The ACYOA Juniors is open to all youth ages 12 to 18. If you or someone you know is interested in or eligible to join the ACYOA Juniors, please contact the Youth Director, Yn. Arpi Kouzouian, at youth@htaac.org. The ACYOA Juniors are on Facebook: Holy Trinity Cambridge ACYOA Juniors.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UPDATE

FIRST SUNDAYS SPECIAL ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

The newly developed First Sundays Special Assemblies for students in Pre-School through Kindergarten were held on November 6, December 4 and February 5. This exciting new program, offered on the first Sunday of each month, is designed to further enrich the lives of our youngest students with targeted lessons and activities that delve a little deeper into the Christian values and teachings we aspire to impart in Sunday School. The typical format includes presenting a story with a message, with a follow up reinforcing art activity. Many thanks to Ann Danielson for developing and leading this program.

Thanksgiving Worship – A Forest of Gratitude

On November 18, our Sunday School families gathered for Thanksgiving Family Worship Sunday. Students and parents attended Church services together, received Holy Communion and heard a Youth Sermon offered by Der Vasken. Following services, the entire community was able to witness the Sunday's School "Forest of Gratitude" on display in the Charles and Nevert Talanian Cultural Hall, a compilation of leaves on which each student listed things for which they are grateful.

Trinity Christmas Bazaar - December 2-3

During the Bazaar, our Sunday School provided children's entertainment with Magician and Juggler Robert Clarke; offered self-directed children's activities and family-friendly seating in Peter Adamian Hall; ran the Sweet Tooth Booth offering penny candy and cupcakes; and held a Calendar Raffle, with 12 monthly winners receiving $25 Amazon gift cards.

Magician and Juggler Robert Clarke entertaining the children at our Trinity Christmas Bazaar

Christmas Workshop

On December 4, the Sunday School held its annual Christmas Workshop, a fun morning of "organized chaos" as our students made ornaments for our Sunday School Christmas tree, followed by a delicious breakfast provided by the Sunday School parents. Many thanks to our teachers for their creativity and to our parents for supplying and preparing the breakfast.

Christmas Outreach Initiative – The Giving Tree

During the Christmas season, our Sunday School participated in a Giving Tree, partnering with Solutions at Work, a Cambridge-based charity that helps thousands of homeless and low-income families break the cycle of poverty and homelessness by providing resources and opportunities to help them help themselves. Thanks to the incredible generosity of our Sunday School families, the gift requests of 60 children and teens were fulfilled, helping to make a difference in the lives of our Cambridge neighbors during this season of giving. (Please visit www.solutionsatwork.org to discover the incredible ways in which this small organization makes a big difference.)

Gifts packed in the car and ready to be delivered to Solutions at Work

Annual Christmas Pageant Presentation

On December 18, weeks of hard work by both our students and staff culminated in the Sunday School's presentation of "The Story of Christmas" during the annual Christmas Pageant. A sincere and heartfelt thank you to all of our staff for helping to make this year's Christmas Pageant a beautiful and memorable gift to our Church community. Special thanks to Pageant Director, Susan Derderian, for her continued leadership and service in putting the Pageant together.

It wouldn't be an event without a selfie with Der Hayr

Youth Sermon – What is Greatness?

On February 12, the Sunday School attended Church services, received Holy Communion, and enjoyed an engaging yet educational Youth Sermon by Der Vasken on Greatness. Drawing from the Patriots recent Super Bowl victory, Der Vasken conveyed that true greatness comes when we serve God by serving others.

Wish List Fulfilled!

At long last, whiteboards have been installed in each of our Sunday School classrooms, thanks to the generosity of Edmond and Ann Danielson. Thanks also to the generosity of an anonymous donor, 40 colorful, durable child-friendly chairs have been purchased to brighten up our Sunday School.

Music Appreciation and Youth Choir

A vital part of our Sunday School curriculum is Music Appreciation, teaching our children not only the music and lyrics, but also the purpose and relevance of our sacred hymns. Led by Daniel Teager, classes are conducted on average twice monthly from 11:30 a.m. - noon, for students in Grades 3-6/7. A natural extension of the Music Appreciation program is our Holy Trinity Youth Choir. Students in Grades 3 and above are encouraged to take part to learn the Divine Liturgy and sing in Church. Practices are held on average twice monthly after Church services. The Youth Choir sang a portion of the Divine Liturgy on November 18 during the Thanksgiving Family Worship, and is currently preparing to again share their talents during this year's Palm Sunday Liturgy. We are so grateful to Daniel Teager for leading this effort, and ask that you encourage your children and grandchildren to take part in this vital ministry, one that will help preserve the beautiful legacy of our sacred music.

DID YOU KNOW?

- It takes over 30 volunteers to run our Sunday School? This includes our teachers, substitutes and administrative staff, not including our parent classroom volunteers!!
