NEWSLETTER | Summer 2018 TO WINTER 2019

What an honor to recognize our Veterans on Sunday, November 11.

Through the initiative of veteran Albert Oskoian, a list was put together of deceased veterans from our parish and, during Requiem Service, each of the 60 names was read. If you have a deceased loved one who was a veteran or know of a deceased veteran from our parish that was not included, please call the Church Office and we will include him or her in our remembrance next year.

FROM OUR PASTOR

The following is taken from remarks offered by Fr. Vasken on September 30

Today Armenian Churches all over the world celebrate a feast that is unique to the Armenian Church. Today is the Feast of the Holy Cross of Varak. Let me very briefly share a part of the story behind this feast day.

Back in the 7th century, a devout monk saw an image of a brilliant cross come to rest on a monastery on Mount Varak in our ancestral homeland. The monk raced to that monastery to see what was going on, and there he found what he has been praying to find for many, many years--a fragment of the True Cross of Jesus Christ. Now how a piece of the Cross of Christ arrived to a mountain in historic Armenia is an interesting story unto itself. There is more about this story in today's Sunday bulletin. But let me just say, that over time, the hiding place of this small relic of the Cross was forgotten, and it laid buried in an unknown place for nearly three hundred years before the monk found it.

Today's feast commemorates that discovery. This fragment of the Holy Cross became a most highly-honored relic in Armenia. To keep it safe, it was moved several times over the centuries from Varak to Sebastia to the City of Van, where it could be seen by pilgrims. At the time of the Genocide, it was moved to Holy Etchmiadzin. That's the history behind this feast day of the Holy Cross, but to me, that's not as important as the significance the Cross has to our lives today.

I think we will all agree that the Cross of Christ is a symbol of blessings in our lives. What do I mean by that? I mean that when we think about what it means to be blessed, most of us think of the good things that have happened to us over the years. Perhaps a supervisor offered us a new position at work and we were blessed with a promotion; or we remember when our baby was born and how we were blessed with a child; or we may have overcome an illness and been blessed with renewed health. Blessings and good times go hand in hand and it's easy to celebrate when things go our way.

But what about when we go through difficult times and challenging times?

- The company is downsizing and lay-offs are coming.
- Someone walks out of a relationship and the other person has to start over.

Where are the blessings when we go through times like these? All of us will at some point walk through the dark valleys of life--the dark places of life--a sickness, a loss, an end, a child heading down a wrong path. The dark places somehow find us, and it's easy to get discouraged, and it's easy to throw our hands into the air and give up. The Bible has a beautiful response to this. The answer is found in Psalm 23. Psalm 23 is possibly the most well-known of all of King David's Psalms. It's not a coincidence that this great king wrote these words: "The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters and though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil." In other words, King David is saying: The same God, who leads us to the green pastures of life; the same God, who leads us to the still waters of life, is the same God, who will lead us through the valley of the shadow of death and back to the land of the green pastures and still waters.

The dark places somehow find us, and it's easy to get discouraged . . .

All shepherds carry a staff with which they lead their flock. Our shepherd's staff is in the shape of a Cross. He holds it high in the air for us to follow. He places it on our forehead and on our heart and soul at our baptism so that it protects us and guides us. Under God's Cross we bless our marriages and bury our loved ones. We make the sign of the Cross to mark our bodies with God's seal, and we start and end our prayers with His seal. The Cross of Christ is a part of life for Christians.

Today is the Feast of the Holy Cross. We venerate the Cross, not because it's an historic artifact like a volcano that went extinct centuries ago, but because it is a living "spiritual bridge" that connects us directly to God. And when we venerate the Cross, it becomes a place to meet God. The Cross is the intersection between this world and the eternal world, and at that intersection we meet our God; at that intersection we embrace the shepherd and we greet the Lord.

So think about this when you have a moment today.

- Is the Holy Cross essential to your life?
- And do you see it as a lens to view your life and the lives of those around you?

I will end with this thought. I'm sure that many of us tuned into the news programs coming out of our nation's capital last week, and like most citizens of our country, you took a side. You believed him, but not her. You believed her, but not him. Or you watched a man, who entertained generations of people through his humor, being led off to prison because he became someone we never imagined he could become. It was a hard week because of all of this. There was anger in the air. There was disappointment in the air. There was tension in the air and I found myself asking:

- "What is going on?"
- "What happened to civil discourse?"
- "What happened to the morals that we grew up with?"

What happened?

We must bear the cross at all times . . . So today's feast reminding us of the message of the Holy Cross is very timely. If we call ourselves Christian, we must bear the Cross at all times and know that we will be held accountable for what we do and say. When we put on the Cross of Christ,

- We no longer just see the world around us; we look at it.
- We no longer just hear the world around us; we listen to it.
- And we will no longer just be aware of the needs of others; we will be moved to help them.

This is what the Cross of Jesus Christ is all about--caring for one another; noticing one another; building each other up. Psalm 23 urges us to follow the Shepherd's Staff. Our Shepherd carries a Cross and He calls us to follow Him, and our lives should reflect that.

Something we should all take some time to think about.

57TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION OF OUR CHURCH AND HONORING NANCY KASARJIAN AND CAROL KRİKORIAN

How do you say "Thank You" to two people who selflessly served our parish for 30 years each? On Sunday, October 28, Holy Trinity said "Thank You" by placing the honor of "Parishioners of the Year" upon Nancy Kasarjian and Carol Krikorian on their retirement as Executive Director and Executive Assistant to the Pastor, respectively. "We will forever feel your presence and passion within the life of our parish. We stand in honor of you today," stated Fr. Vasken. "We, as a parish, have benefitted from their work ethics, sense of duty, and caring hearts since the late 1980's," he continued. "Bestowing this honor upon them together is most befitting - as it was together that they accomplished so much over the years. Side-by-side, they worked together, they innovated, they created and they shaped the Holy Trinity office into a place that made us all proud to call our own."

Seta A. Buchter, on behalf of the office staff and as the staff member who served the longest with both Nancy and Carol, offered the toast of the day in their honor. Parish Council member, Ani Ross Grubb, fluidly served as MC of the day. Serving on the Reception Committee were Cynthia Kazanjian and Cheryl Panjian, Co-Chairs, Jennifer Esserian, Yn. Arpi Kouzouian, Lynne Rigolini, and Audrey Tanashian.

OUR ACYOA'S ANNUAL THANKSGIVING TRADITION

Our ACYOA hosted over 300 guests for a Thanksgiving Luncheon on Sunday, November 18. Marking the 30th anniversary of this annual tradition, the parish welcomed a past Holy Trinity Youth Director, Anthony Barsamian, who first established this annual parish family Thanksgiving event. Attorney Barsamian, who currently serves as President of the Massachusetts Council of Churches and is Co-Chair of the Armenian Assembly Board of Trustees, offered encouraging words to the youth and families gathered.

The ACYOA members launched their own initiative for the occasion by creating 25 Thanksgiving meal baskets that were donated to needy families in the Cambridge area.

PILGRIMAGE TO ARMENIA! EXHIBIT

On Saturday, December 8, nearly 50 parishioners and friends of Holy Trinity Armenian Church traveled to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City to visit the now renowned "Armenia!" Exhibit. It was a day of pride not only in the artistry, craftsmanship and preservation of the artifacts on display, but also in the fact that so many non-Armenian visitors were equally captivated by the exhibit of our ancient culture. Thank you to the group leader, Yn. Arpi Kouzouian, for so warmly, energetically and ably leading everyone throughout the trip.

EREVAN CHORAL SOCIETY CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Always a beautiful way to usher in the Christmas season, this year's Christmas Holiday Concert, held on Sunday, December 9, didn't disappoint. Under the direction of Composer Konstantin Petrossian, and with soloists Michael Calmés, baritone, and Anahit Zakarayn, soprano, it was a wonderful evening as we commemorated the 10th anniversary of the passing of the Very Rev. Father Oshagan Minassian, the 30th Anniversary of the earthquake in Armenia, and the 2800th Anniversary of the city of Yerevan. Our Armenian School added to the program with beautiful recitations. The reception in the Charles and Nevart Talanian Cultural Hall following the concert featured a photo exhibit, "To Armenia," by Winslow Martin Photography.

SUNDAY SCHOOL'S CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

It's an annual tradition not to be missed as our Sunday School students offer the beautiful story of the birth of Jesus to the parish. This year, on Sunday, December 16, under the direction of Susan K. Derderian and Barbara Surabian, the pageant again touched the hearts of parishioners.

DECEMBER 24 CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE

The English Christmas Eve Service held on Monday, December 24, was truly special and drew over 300 Armenians and the neighboring non-Armenian community together.

CELEBRATING ARMENIAN CHRISTMAS

It was a day of celebrations on the occasion of the Birth and Baptism of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Hundreds of faithful participated in the liturgical traditions on this major Feast Day. We congratulate the Godfather of the Holy Cross, Altar Server and ACYOA member, Edward Khatchatrian, son of Varoujan Khatchatrian and Alvard Arazyan. Our Youth Choir, under the direction of Dan Teager, sang a portion of the Divine Liturgy. Following Church Services, over 200 faithful were treated to a delicious Armenian Christmas Luncheon sponsored by the Sunday School during which the Armenian School offered a traditional Hantes of poetry and song. We thank all those who helped put the luncheon together, led by David Dorian.

OUR TRINITY FAMILY FESTIVAL

With the addition of the "Summer Shack" and having Armenian music by the Greg Krikorian Ensemble outside, in addition to all the wonderful Armenian food, what better way for our Church family and friends to gather at summer's end for our Trinity Family Festival held on September 9. And for our Patriots fans, the game was available for viewing on our big screen in the Charles and Nevert Talanian Cultural Hall. Richard Diranian, David Dorian, and Jack Ekchian, Festival Co-Chairmen, thank all the dedicated volunteers for all their hard work prior to and/or during the festival. Thank you to all who supported our raffle and congratulations to the winners: 1st Prize, $1,000 - Elizabeth Babaian; 2nd Prize, $300 - Elizabeth Sargavakian; and 3rd Prize - $200 - David Dorian.

The Pastor and Parish Council extend their gratitude to Festival Co-Chairmen Richard Diranian, David Dorian, and Jack Ekchian

CELTICS' GREAT SAM JONES OPENS TRINITY MEN'S UNION SEASON

What better way to open up the first gathering of the Trinity Men's Union than with ten-time NBA Champion, the Celtics' Sam Jones. On Monday, September 10, the TMU welcomed a Boston Sports legend into their midst. Drafted in 1957, Sam was called "Mr. Clutch" by many of his peers. Prior to introducing Sam, Der Vasken showed a video clip on our 12-foot high-definition screen showing the Celtics star's uncannily accurate bank shots, lightning quickness, and cool demeanor that helped the Celtics win 10 NBA championships in the 12 years he played with the team, second only to teammate Bill Russell. Sam was a five-time NBA All Star, named to both the NBA's 25th and 50th anniversary teams, had his No. 24 retired by the Celtics, and was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1984.

"Sam Jones graced our parish this evening," stated Fr. Vasken, "with poise and a genuine spirit. He was uplifting through one story after another playing as a Boston Celtic during their rise to greatness and at a time when racism challenged the City of Boston. He is truly one of the most captivating speakers we have had at Holy Trinity. May God continue to bless this man as he reaches out and helps generations younger than he believe in themselves."

Der Vasken thanked Mark Bodanza, author of Sam Jones' story, "Ten Times a Champion," who helped coordinate the visit. In his reply, Mark stated, "Thank you Father. Sam and I had the same great experience. We both remarked how warm and dedicated your whole community is. We both felt welcome and noted the foundation of your Church is love. What a great evening."

A big "thank you" to David Dorian and his volunteers for putting together another great meal the day after our Trinity Festival.

TRINITY KIDS PLACE

The week of August 6, 2018, marked the 12th year of welcoming children ages 3 to 9 to Trinity Kids Place where an introduction to the Church and religion for our youngest parishioners is offered.

The 20 children who participated learned about "Reflecting God's Light." The program is under the able direction of Yn. Arpi Kouzouian and Ann Danielson, together with our Pastor. The staff is made up of several ACYOA members and guest parishioners who share their talents with our youngest parishioners.

TIMELESS CLASSICS - MUSIC OF J.S. BACH

The Holy Trinity Sanctuary was filled with the timeless music of Johann Sebastian Bach on the afternoon of Sunday, September 23. The Recital, initiated by Nune Hakobyan, featured the musical talents of mezzo-soprano Victoria Avetisyan, the Sargis Karapetyan Quartet, Deanna Johnson, flutist, and Nune Hakobyan, pianist and organist. The 200 people in attendance - from the parish and neighboring community - were delighted by the tribute to Bach's joy-filled, spiritually-inspired music.

SUSAN OSMAN, TV & RADIO ANCHOR/HOST, SHARING HER JOURNEY

"Are you ready for these credentials?" queried Fr. Vasken as he introduced the guest speaker, Susan Osman, who shared her incredible journey with us on Sunday, September 30, following Church Services.

"I heard God laughing" . . . began Susan Osman, "when I set out in life." After 20 years anchoring the BBC in London, Susan shared her incredible experiences that took her from London to China to the City of Boston, addressing how God often has different plans for us than we have for ourselves.

Ms. Osman, a well-known television anchor/host and recognizable voice in Britain and worldwide, has worked for all the major British networks and is known for her charm, compassion, punchy interviewing style, drawing people out, and her warm sense of humor. On screen and in front of a microphone, she is as much at home with the lighter side of life as she is with hard-hitting documentaries in interviews. She talked of her unlikely move to China where she was invited to devise a new live daily radio Breakfast show for China Radio International, The Beijing Hour with Susan Osman, that was transmitted live in China, Australia and America, and translated into 62 languages with an estimated audience of over 30 million listeners worldwide.

Along her journey, this most accomplished TV and Radio News Anchor/Host, Author and Screenwriter saw challenging ups and downs in life, but through faith found the courage to march forward. Susan Osman, who interviewed world leaders, addressed the parish for over an hour and the parishioners could have listened to her all afternoon. We were indeed fortunate to have her in our midst. It was an amazing afternoon!
