Holy Trinity Armenian Apostolic Church of Greater Boston

Fr. Vasken A. Kouzouian, Pastor

Fall 2021

Dear Holy Trinity family and friends,

We are so pleased to bring the Dajar back in a fresh, new format. The Dajar, our parish newsletter, remains focused on its mission – to bring the life of our parish into your home. I hope you will enjoy the changes we have made. And while we are excited to look ahead toward our full re-opening and a packed Fall/Winter calendar of events, we should take a moment to acknowledge all we have worked through together in the past 18 months.

Despite a “reduced” year and a half, brought on by COVID-19 restrictions, I am certain Holy Trinity Church will continue stronger than ever, with a broader reach than ever before. It was through Faith, Worship, Culture, Service, Education, Compassionate outreach, Innovative approaches, and Ingenuity that our parish thrived in new ways, prospered in others, but always felt the difficulties and pain of our parishioners during the horrible year of pandemic, the Artsakh War and their aftermath. We especially felt the grief of those among us who lost loved ones during these unprecedented times.

Thankfully, we have pulled through a very difficult period. I thank you all for your ongoing support, presence (both virtually and in-person) and for all the words of love and encouragement you have expressed.

How did we survive the last 18 months? We learned several lessons along the way. We found new paths to engage our people in sharing our faith and culture. We survived because we remained “... strong and of good courage; ... we were not frightened, neither dismayed, for the Lord our God is with us ... forever.” –Joshua 1:9

Featured Events

New Ways for Old Traditions

Over the past 18 months, we had to find new ways to celebrate our traditions. Pictured below are Der Vasken, Dn. Greg Krikorian, Oscar Derderian III, and Dn. Tim (now Der Nigoghos) Aznavourian, pastoral intern, during the Blessing of the Rahan (Basil) service, Fall 2020.

Cultural Programs

Throughout the last several months, Holy Trinity Armenian Church has held brief cultural programs at the end of Badarak. These programs were live-streamed on Facebook and watched by our friends all around the world.

United in Defense of Artsakh: Answering the Call

Through your generosity, Holy Trinity raised in excess of $200,000.00 to help provide relief to those affected by this tragedy.

On October 7, 2020 Holy Trinity Church launched a campaign to support the Eastern Diocese's "United in Defense of Artsakh" fundraiser for the Armenia Fund. Our Facebook donors contributed $11,970.00 directly to the Armenia Fund. In addition, the Church received $84,770.00 in donations that were sent to the Armenia Fund. The total contribution from our Holy Trinity family to the Armenia Fund during the war was $96,740.00.

Filled with a deep desire to help their brothers and sisters in Artsakh, members of the Holy Trinity ACYOA launched Baskets of Hope for Artsakh in October, preparing baskets filled with homemade Armenian treats, raising a total of $8,435.00. We thank our Director of Youth Ministries, Yn. Arpi Kouzouian for overseeing this effort, along with Armina Manoukian and a team of dedicated ACYOA parents and youth who donated and prepared over 250 Baskets of Hope. Additionally, Holy Trinity contributed $100,000.00 to the Mother See of Holy Etchmiadzin Artsakh Humanitarian Outreach Committee to provide support to the homeless and fatherless children after the war.

Thank you to our parishioners and friends for answering the call to help provide relief to those affected by this tragedy. We continue to pray for the security of Artsakh and Armenia and for the safety of every soul who resides in and defends our sacred, historic homeland. For a complete list of donors, please visit <https://htaac.org/artsakh-update/>

We continue to pray for the security of Artsakh and Armenia and for the safety of every soul who resides in and defends our sacred, historic homeland.

Greg Hintlian Memorial Golf Tournament

If you can visualize a beautifully manicured golf course, green and lush, Marlboro Country Club again set the stage for a fun-packed day, for the annual Greg Hintlian Memorial Golf Tournament. This year the tournament remembered two long time participants and friends Jerry Boghosian and Dick Kazanjian. Jerry and Dick's friendship spanned 50+ years, and you could often find them together at parish events.

Most memorable for the golfers was some added excitement as Scott Martin made a hole-in-one -- the first ever at the tournament! Typically, the player who scores what is also called "an ace" must buy the other players a beverage after the game. Scott graciously invited all the participants to have one, and he treated those interested. There were many cheers of happiness at that announcement! Added to the fun were an abundance of raffle prizes and silent auction donations. An ice cream sundae bar finished off the evening.

Many members of our Holy Trinity Family were moved to help Artsakh. Here, Der Vasken is visiting a book sale held by two young parishioners to raise money for Artsakh.

Holy Trinity Church held a number of cultural programs throughout the year, intended to connect our parishioners with their Armenian heritage and culture.

Holy Trinity's Grab-and-Go Bazaar

Neither rain nor sleet nor snow has stopped Holy Trinity Church's annual bazaar, but to this list, add a global pandemic! Bazaar co-chairs Karen Hovsepian and Gregory A. Kolligian, Jr. demonstrated their creativity and flexibility to plan a Grab-and-Go bazaar that would allow Holy Trinity Church's friends, family, and neighbors to enjoy our traditional Armenian meals and treats as they have done for many years.

An army of volunteers, taking necessary COVID-19-safe precautions, worked tirelessly for weeks in advance to cook and bake the food that patrons could pre-order for pickup during our bazaar weekend. Although we missed our traditional vendors, we needed the space to line up and organize the many bags of meals and baked goods to ensure a smooth and orderly pickup process, despite the Friday night snowstorm! It wouldn't be a bazaar without our Super Raffle drawing, and our chairs livestreamed the drawing over Facebook, ensuring that everyone could participate in the excitement.

Many heartfelt thanks to Karen, Greg, and all our bazaar volunteers who helped cook, bake, and organize. Holy Trinity's persistence combined with our caring community ensured that the bazaar went off without a hitch in unprecedented circumstances. The bazaar always takes the effort of so many, and we are grateful for everyone who came together as a community to make this year's event successful.

Martin & Mimi Kalustian Learning Lab Update

Thanks to the generosity of James Kalustian, Holy Trinity Armenian Church has been upgrading our technological capability across the complex as part of the Martin & Mimi Kalustian Learning Lab initiative.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, parishioners of all ages have benefited from the technology provided so far by the Kalustian Learning Lab – this includes the TV in Johnson Hall, the SMARTBoard and MacBook in Adamian Hall, and improved wi-fi across the complex, which allows for livestreaming, using Zoom, and accessing online resources for learning. More capabilities will be introduced across the complex over the next several months.

Church Schools

This year Holy Trinity Church made the decision to offer in-person instruction for our Church Schools. We express our profound and sincere gratitude and appreciation to our Sunday School Superintendent, Yn. Arpi Kouzouian, Armenian School Director Naira Balagyozyan for their creativity and resourcefulness, as well as our Curriculum Committee, staff, and volunteers for sharing their time and talents this past year.

The 2021 Lenten Drive focused on raising funds to benefit a family displaced by the war in Artsakh. Sunday School students, families, and ACYOA raised over $2700, enough to sponsor a family for a full year.

We were thrilled to assemble safely and hold our traditional End of the Year Celebration with an awards ceremony, followed by a picnic to celebrate. Can't wait to see you soon...

Congratulations to the following award recipients:

ACYOA

In a difficult year, when our youth had limited opportunities to interact and come together, Holy Trinity Church ACYOA Jrs. and Srs. made a commitment to one another to do so virtually. Our ACYOA Juniors Virtual Lock-Ins and ACYOA Seniors Lenten Discussions became a fundamental part of Holy Trinity Church's youth program for the pandemic year – a very successful part.

Our ACYOA members gathered for a Lock-In virtually via Zoom each Friday night from March to June to discuss teen life, especially during a pandemic, discover what is unique and/or universal about the teen experience and build deeper relationships with each other, their Pastor and their Youth Director. As one member is quoted as saying, "these Lock-ins were the only thing that got me through the pandemic."

In a year plagued also by the war in Artsakh, our ACYOA members came together in the spirit of philanthropy for their Motherland. They hosted the Prayer Vigil for Artsakh – a memorable evening of music and prayer on the Hollisian Plaza and initiated Baskets of Hope for Artsakh, as well as Thanksgiving and Christmas Basket fundraisers. These beautiful baskets were lovingly assembled by our ACYOA members and families and filled with an assortment of Armenian delicacies. In all, our ACYOA raised nearly $10,000.00 for Artsakh relief.

Holy Trinity Church continues to take pride in these extraordinary young people and we wish them God's blessings as a new school year begins!

In Lieu of Flowers

The Pastor and Parish Council extend sincere sympathy and gratefully acknowledge the families who made it possible for friends and relatives of their departed loved ones to contribute in lieu of flowers, partially or totally, towards our church. This issue of Dajar lists In Lieu of Flowers donations and Sacraments covering the time period from January 2020 through June 30, 2021.
