SUNDAY BULLETIN

Today is the Sunday of the Prodigal Son

Upcoming Sunday Feast Days

March 12 - Sunday of the Steward

March 19 - Sunday of the Judge

March 26 - Sunday of the Advent

April 2 - Palm Sunday

April 9 - Easter Sunday

Readings of the Day:

Is. 54:11-55:13. 2 Cor. 6:1-7:1. Lk.15:1-32.

Today's Bible reading is from the Gospel of Jesus Christ according to St. Luke, chapter 15, vs. 1-32 and will be read by Bruce Newell.

From Today's Bible Reading

Matthew 5: 17-48 Jesus calls the world to a level of righteousness. Sin starts in the heart and Jesus itemizes these sins with their prescribed resolution: Anger against one's fellow: forgive and reconcile. Lust is a state of mind: do your utmost to prevent this (gouge out your eye if need be!). Breaking marital bonds is wrong (remember Jesus' harsh language here is akin to his suggestion we gouge out our eye to avoid lust - an overstatement to make a point). Oaths are sacred: keep them. Do more, not less, for anyone needing your help. Lovingly pray for your enemies. Reflection: These remain as head- spinningly demanding as they must have been to Jesus' listeners. Read these verses prayerfully. Decide which attitude you might work on as a Lenten discipline.

Romans 12:1-13:10 St. Paul urges the Romans to "be transformed" according to God's "good, pleasing, and perfect will." (12:2) He advises the humble use of our God-given spiritual gifts. That we be devoted to one another, sharing with those in need. That we live in peace, overcoming evil with good. That love is the ultimate all-encompassing 'law' (13:10). Reflection: For the days of Lent still ahead, use 12:12 as a daily prayer: "Today, Lord, help me be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, and faithful in prayer."

Isaiah 33: 2-22 In the shadow of Assyria's invasion, God's people turn once again to Him for support and salvation. They have grown to better know who He is and what He can do, even through their times of apostasy. The righteous are promised divine intervention; evil will be toppled. The holy city will prevail and there the Lord will preside as the "Mighty One." Reflection: We are promised one day to "see the King in His beauty." (17) In the biblical world, mirrors were made of polished metal; images were distorted. St. Paul also promised a clear view someday ("now we see in a mirror dimly, then we will see face-to-face"-1 Cor 13:12) Close your eyes and imagine that moment. What do you see?

Today is the Sunday of the Expulsion

Expulsion Sunday reminds us of that original exile from God's presence: Adam and Eve driven out of Paradise for eating from the tree that had been forbidden to them. The notion that they were wiser than God in deciding to eat the fruit of the "knowledge of good and evil" is at the heart of every sinful thought or action to this day. And even now, when we do something we're not proud of, facing God is indeed as difficult as it was for Adam and Eve who tried to hide from Him as He walked "in the Garden in the cool of the day." (Genesis 3:8) Thankfully, in God's loving mercy, this is an exile He will not let us endure forever. Great Lent is a unique opportunity to ponder God's absence even as we seek Him in 40 days of prayer and reflection. Reflection: Read Genesis 3. Why would God allow Adam and Eve to fail when tempted? What does this say about God? About what He wants from us?

Prayer Requests

Your prayers are requested to have mercy on our countrymen in Artsakh, to strengthen them in defense of their homeland, and to grant consolation to the suffering and grieving.

Your prayers are also requested for

John Armen Demirjian, Ara Hollisian, Nishan Tikijian, and for the good health of all those who suffer from illness in their own private way;

and for those who mourn the loss of loved ones.

Der Vasken offers a weekly Hokehankisd Service.

Please note that if you would like Der Vasken to offer your prayer request during his silent prayers at the celebration of the Divine Liturgy, please fill out the Prayer Request cards that are located on the table in the Narthex (the Church Sanctuary lobby).

Please contact the church office with any questions.

Requests submitted after 11 am on Thursday will not be printed in the Sunday Bulletin but will be read from the altar by Der Vasken. Please alert a Parish Council member on Sunday if you requested a Hokehankisd after 11 am on Thursday to ensure Der Vasken has the name of your loved one.

Fellowship Hour

You are all welcome to join us following Church Services for Fellowship Hour hosted by the ACYOA.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Leonidas David Deschenes, the son of Timothy Deschenes & Alison Shenloogian Deschenes, who was baptized on Saturday in our Church. We welcome Leonidas into our Christian family of the Holy Trinity Church and pray that Almighty God may keep him under His loving care.

GREAT LENT

Great Lent which began on Monday, February 20, and ends on Saturday, April 1, is the 40-day period of spiritual preparation that leads to the greatest feast of the Church - Easter. It is a time for focused spiritual disciplines, prayer, reading the Bible, service, giving, fasting and living a simpler life.

Throughout Lent:

- We do not receive or pass the Voghchooyin (Kiss of Peace).
- Holy Communion is not administered. Those in need of Holy Communion may see the Celebrant following the Badarak.
 - Mahs is distributed to the faithful regularly.
- We do not approach the Celebrant at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy to kiss the Gospel.

LENTEN DRIVE

For this year's Lenten Drive, we will be raising funds to support the Families of Artsakh who continue to suffer during the ongoing conflict impacting their homeland. Donations will be sent through the diocesan Fund for Armenian Relief (FAR), whose work is mainly focused on five chief program areas, including education, child protection, economic development, healthcare and social services.

As giving is one the three main focuses of our Lenten journey, we encourage our students to donate generously to our Sunday School Lenten Drive.

100% of all Lenten Drive funds raised will directly support the Families of Artsakh through the Fund for Armenian Relief
